

WELCOME BACK!

Roslyn Theater Company is pleased to announce our Fall 2021 semester employing protocols to safeguard the well being of your children and our staff.

It's been a tough year for all of us, but we are excited to announce our in-person Summer Workshop and Fall 2021 Classes. All Fall classes will end with a fully-staged show in January 2022!

We can't wait to see everyone again!!

SUMMER WORKSHOP: DISNEY REVUE

August 10, 11, 13, 17, 18, 19 @ 10:00 - 11:30 am
All ages

Once your child is registered for our Disney Revue-Disney over the decades.

Parents will then be asked to submit a video audition of their Child singing their favorite Disney song. Campers will have an opportunity to sing, dance, act while making new friends and learning new ways to think out of the box and, most importantly, to have fun. There will be a mini-production following the last class to be performed at our studio.

$600.00 (cash/check/Venmo) $625.00 (paypal)

OUR MISSION

Roslyn Theater Company was created to enable children to discover the joy of performing.

We believe that the arts can transform lives. Involving children in the performing arts demands their focus, concentration and discipline and rewards them with self-confidence, positive group participation, skills and fun!

We strive to provide an inspiring, enriching experience to our students.

OUR POLICIES

Placement in class is determined on a first come, first served basis.

Any child who does not continue with the class after attending the first class (which is the audition class) is eligible for a refund of $500. There will be NO refunds after the second class. NO EXCEPTIONS!!

Classes are cancelled during inclement weather, following the decision of the Roslyn School District. When possible, snow days are made up within the session. Students are responsible for classes missed.

Payment options are available.

We strive to be sensitive to our student's needs and schedules. Please call Jill 516-225-3247 to speak with her directly if there are questions or conflicts with class times.

Students are required to be respectful and polite to each other and their teachers, at all times.

Exploring Life Through Song and Performance!

This class aims to help children become more familiar with their vocal technique, stage presence, story-telling abilities and confidence through exercises/activities, games, and working on material that is fun, engaging, approachable, and age-appropriate. The class ends with a fully-staged show in January 2022.

$800.00 (cash/check/Venmo) $825.00 (paypal)

Instructors: Jackie Bakewell, Steve Belfer and Jill Studley

LION KING

Tuesday 4:30 - 5:30 pm Ages 6- 8

Thursday 4:30- 5:30 Ages 6-8

The Story follows a young lion cub named Simba, born into royalty as heir to his father, Mufasa's, throne. Simba must regain his courage and face the difficulties of his past to defeat his wicked uncle Scar and reclaim his role in the Circle of Life. Structured like a Broadway musical, students learn what it takes to do a show from casting to curtain call. The class ends with a fully staged show in January 2022
